FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Oversight was unable to receive agency responses in a timely manner due to the short fiscal note request time. Oversight has prepared this fiscal note with the best current information that we have, or with prior year information regarding a similar bill. Upon the receipt of agency responses, Oversight will prepare an updated fiscal note and seek the necessary approval of the chairperson of the Joint Committee on Legislative Research to publish a new fiscal note.

Officials from the Office of Administration-division of Budget and Planning (BAP) noted this proposal would allow taxpayers to contribute all or part of their personal income tax refunds to MOST accounts and assume it would not have a fiscal impact to their organization.

BAP officials assume there would be no direct impact to general and Total State Revenues from this proposal; to the extent taxpayers increase contribution to the MOST Program, additional tax deductions may occur which could indirectly reduce revenues.

Oversight notes this proposal would allow tax return filers to redirect a portion or all of their income tax refund to a MOST account. The proposal would not change the amount of tax nor the refund due; therefore, Oversight assumes the proposal would have no fiscal impact to the state.

In response to a similar proposal (SB 420 LR 2014-01) officials from the Department of Revenue (DOR) assumed the proposal would allow all or part of an income tax refund to be direct deposited into a financial institution managing the Missouri Higher Education Savings Program. The provisions would require a deposit of at least $25 in the tax year refunded, and the taxpayer would be required to use a form prescribed by the Department and file the form with the taxpayer's tax return.

Administrative Impact

DOR officials assume Personal Tax would require two additional Temporary Tax Employees to key the MOST trust fund account information and two additional Revenue Processing Technicians I (Range 10, Step L) for correspondence and error correction. In addition, Collections and Tax Assistance (CATA) would have additional customer contacts about the direct deposit option and notice of adjustments. CATA would require one additional Tax Collection Technician (Range 10, Step L) for every additional 15,000 contacts annually on the non-delinquent tax line. The technician would require CARES equipment and license.

Oversight does not have information as to the number of participants in the 2014 checkoff program but notes the highest number of participants in an individual program in FY 2013 was 3,597. Oversight assumes a limited number of transactions could be processed by existing employees; however, if implementing the proposal results in unanticipated additional work for DOR or if multiple proposals are enacted resources could be requested through the budget process.

IT impact

DOR officials provided an estimate of the IT cost to implement the proposal of $75,168 based on 1,002 hours of programming to make changes to DOR systems.

Oversight will use the DOR estimate of IT cost in this fiscal note. Since the proposal would be effective for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2016, Oversight will include the IT cost in FY 2017 when the first tax returns would be filed.

Officials from the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules assume this proposal would not have a fiscal impact to their organization.

Officials from the Department of Higher Education assume this proposal would have no fiscal impact on their organization.

In response to a similar proposal (SB 420 LR 2014-01) officials from the Office of the Secretary of State assumed the proposal would have no impact on their organization.
