FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Public Safety - Office of the Director state that the costs of the meetings could be absorbed within their budget as long as the expenses relate to travel only.

Officials from Office of Prosecution Services assume the proposal would not fiscally impact their agency.

Officials from the Attorney General's Office assume that any potential costs arising from this proposal could be absorbed with existing resources.

In response to a similar proposal from 2015 (HB 52), officials at the Office of the Governor stated the bill establishes the Task Force on Civilian Review Boards, which is comprised of nine gubernatorial appointments. There should be no added cost to the Governor's Office as a result of this measure. However, if additional duties are placed on the office related to appointments in other TAFP legislation, there may be the need for additional staff resources in future years.

Oversight will assume the state and local political subdivisions could implement this proposal within existing resources.

FISCAL IMPACT - State Government	FY 2017 (10 Mo.)	FY 2018	FY 2019

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

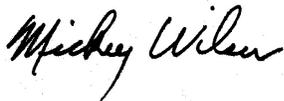

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation appears to have no direct fiscal impact.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
