FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Public Safety - Office of the Director assume the proposal would not fiscally impact their agency.

Officials from Kansas City, Sugar Creek, Jackson County, St. Charles County, Jefferson County, St. Louis County, the Independence Police Department, St. Charles Police Department, St. Louis County Police Department, and the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.

Oversight assumes the new minimum (1,000 hours of basic training at a nationally accredited training facility for any peace officer obtaining licensure after August 28, 2020 and employed by a political subdivision in a county of the first classification with a charter form of government (Jackson County, St. Louis County, St. Charles County, and Jefferson County) or in the City of St. Louis) would have a fiscal impact on any local political subdivision that doesn't currently meet that threshold. Oversight doesn't know which law enforcement agencies will need to provide additional training to their new recruits starting in 2020; therefore, Oversight will reflect an unknown amount of additional expense in FY 2021.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This bill modifies the definition of "reserve peace officer" to include individuals who are paid and those who are not paid. This bill also requires peace officers who receive licenses after August 28, 2020, and who are employed by a political subdivision in Jackson, Jefferson, St. Charles, and St. Louis counties or in St. Louis City must have a minimum of 1,000 hours of basic training at a nationally accredited training facility.

The bill also adds persons serving as reserve officers in Jackson, Jefferson, St. Charles, and St. Louis counties or in St. Louis City to the list of individuals for whom the Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Commission must set the minimum number of hours of basic training for peace officer licensing.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
