FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Public Safety - Missouri Highway Patrol, Office of the Attorney General, and the Office of the State Courts Administrator assume this proposal would not fiscally impact their respective agencies.

Officials from the Office of the Prosecution Services states that since this creates a new crime, it may impact prosecutors, but any impact would not exceed $100,000.

Oversight assumes that the Office of the Prosecution Services would be able to absorb any fiscal impact from this legislation within their current budget constraints.

Officials from the Office of the State Public Defender assumes that existing staff could provide representation for those 15-25 cases arising where indigent persons were charged with leaving a child unattended in a motor vehicle. However, passage of more than one similar bill would require the State Public Defender System to request increased appropriations to cover cumulative cost of representing the indigent accused in the additional cases.

FISCAL IMPACT - State Government	FY 2003 (10 Mo.)	FY 2004	FY 2005

FISCAL IMPACT - Local Government	FY 2003 (10 Mo.)	FY 2004	FY 2005

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This proposal creates the crime of leaving a child unattended in a motor vehicle in the third degree. The crime is committed when a person knowingly leaves a child 10 years of age or younger unattended in a motor vehicle. It is a class C misdemeanor.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
