

Title: Oversight Senior Counsel

Benefits: State benefits, including health care, retirement, sick leave and vacation

Location: Oversight Division, Room 132 Capitol Building, Jefferson City

Closing date: Until filled

Salary range: $55,000 - $70,000

Posting Description

This position provides legal advice and research analysis on all matters relating to the Joint Committee on Legislative Research: Oversight Division. Duties include but are not limited to providing advisory opinions, communicating closely with the executive branch and other governmental entities and assisting members or other divisions of the General Assembly as directed.

Education and Experience

Candidates must be a licensed Missouri attorney in good standing with the Missouri Bar and have graduated from an ABA-accredited law school with an understanding of either the financial services industry, investment and retirement issues, Medicaid policy or laws pertaining to personal and business tax filings. Three or more years of professional experience in tax policy, tax credits, securities law, policy development, legislative advocacy or a related field is preferred.

Responsibilities

Provide objective nonpartisan legal analysis to all matters concerning the Oversight Division, including review and analysis of state programs, federal and state tax laws and proposed legislation. Candidates should possess the ability to work independently on legislation related to a variety of public policy areas under strict time constraints in a fast paced environment. This position may have managerial and supervisory duties.
