

Title: Tax Fiscal Analyst

Benefits: State benefits, including health care, retirement, sick leave and vacation

Location: Oversight Division, Room 132 Capitol Building, Jefferson City

Closing date: August 31, 2017

Reasons for the Position

Working for the Oversight Division is an opportunity to increase your knowledge and experience in tax law by being involved in the possible changes in state laws that affect individuals, partnerships, and corporations. This position could provide a wide range of interaction with legislators on tax policies.

Education and Experience

A bachelor's or master's degree in business, accounting, political science, or public administration and at least two years of experience in tax research, review, or analysis. A graduate degree in a relevant discipline may be offered as a substitute. Additional experience in the preparation of a wide range of tax returns is beneficial.

Job Duties

Participating in the fiscal analysis of proposed tax legislation for the General Assembly, compiling and analyzing tax data, conducting research and studying background tax material relevant to the agencies and state programs being evaluated or reviewed.
