FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Economic Development - Division of Finance assumes this proposal would not fiscally impact their agency.

Department of Insurance (INS) officials state that the department may need to develop an annual statement supplementary interrogatory to monitor compliance with this proposal. INS assumes that the one-time development costs, the annual mailing costs, and the annual monitoring of responses could be covered with existing appropriation. INS states that if additional proposals as passed it may be necessary to request additional appropriation due to the combined affect of multiple proposals.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

Some small financial institutions could be fiscally impacted due to the requirements of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This proposal would allow securities and other related assets that are not exclusively controlled by an insurance company to be held only by business entities that are subject to regulation by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the federal reserve system, or other banking regulator.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
