FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials of the Department of Revenue and State Tax Commission stated that this proposal would not have an administrative impact on their agencies.

Officials of the State Tax Commission also noted that there would be relatively few claims for refunds under terms of this proposal; however, one large claim for refund could have a significant impact upon the political subdivisions affected since they probably would already have spent the taxes paid in error.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

Small businesses which erroneously pay property tax could be affected by this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This bill extends the time period for refund or credit of an overpayment of real property taxes that has been erroneously or mistakenly levied upon a taxpayer from one to 3 years. (Taxpayers would continue to have one year to apply for refunds or credits of personal property taxes.) The bill also allows collectors of revenue to offset future distributions of property tax revenues to political subdivisions in an amount equal to any refund or credit granted.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
